TRANSMITTAL SLIP
8 June 1953 (Date)
TO: Acting Chief, Logistics Office
BUILDING	ROOM NO. CONFIDENTIAL
REMARKS: Keg: I wish you would give this matter your personal attention. I know that your boys are running hard, that you are under strength, and that June will probably be an especially bad month; however, this report would indicate that almost everybody in the Logistics Office is working a six-day week. I doubt the advisability of keeping this up forever, especially during the hot summer months. Would you discuss this matter with me at your convenience. You will note that you more than double the Agency's over- (over)
